

DANIELSON

Ruth Dubuc Taken to Worcester Hospital—Mrs. Mary Ann Wood's 87th Birthday—Death of Leone Bartlett—High School Representatives to Attend Putnam Conference.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Keach, of the West Side, left Thursday afternoon for Fitchburg, Mass., called there by the death of Mrs. Keach's mother, Charles Scofield of Boston is spending a few days with relatives in Danielson.

Mrs. E. A. Warner is seriously ill at her home here.

Joseph Bodo was in Providence on Thursday on a business trip.

Mrs. J. J. Dunn and daughter, Miss Marie Dunn, have returned from a visit with relatives in Bridgeport.

Agent's Reward For Work.

Philias Polier left Thursday evening for Newark, N. J., where he is to be a guest of the company as a member of a party of agents who have written a special amount of insurance during the last few months of the year.

Deputy Sheriff George F. Holbrook of Putnam and Officer Nerre Coderre of North Grovesdale brought prisoners from those towns bound over to the superior court to the jail in Brooklyn Thursday.

At the prayer meeting at the Baptist church Thursday evening Rev. W. D. Swaffield gave a report of this week's state Baptist convention at Middletown as a delegate from his church.

On Ocean Hunting Trip.

William Ross of Franklin street, James Kent of Elmville and Frank McGorty, employed at Putnam are on a week's coast hunting trip in the Pomfret-Ashford-Eastford section of the county.

A week from today County Commissioners E. H. Cortis, J. A. Dady and Urgele Lafrance will be here to receive applications for licenses. They are to meet in the selectmen's rooms.

Taken to Worcester Hospital.

Ruth Dubuc, 7, struck by an automobile driven by A. E. Hall of South Killingly last Saturday, was taken on Thursday morning in an automobile to St. Vincent's hospital, Worcester. Her condition had become so critical as to be alarming.

It is said that the onion crop has proved so much of a failure in some places that prices will soar sky high before spring. Wet weather during the development period caused the onions in many fields to have rotted centers.

It was noted in New York papers on Thursday that Attorney Warren D. Chase was on hand at the trial of former directors and officials of the New Haven road when he was wanted, just as he said he would be.

Peck's Bad Boy was seen at the Orpheum theatre Thursday evening in an arrangement somewhat different from that during its long past appearances here and proved a pleasing entertainment.

Guests at 87th Birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Wood, Mrs. Walter Wood of Danielson and other relatives were at East Killingly on Wednesday to visit with Mrs. Mary Ann Wood. Mr. Wood's mother, on her 87th birthday, which found her in unusually good health and spirits for one of her advanced years.

Charles Johnson of North Grovesdale, county sealer of weights and measures, was in Danielson Thursday on one of his official visits of inspection. He reported finding everything regular at the places visited.

The laying of concrete on the south side of the Main Street crossing is proceeding with considerable rapidity this week and the undercoating of the new pavement is now laid to a point above the Hyde and Cyr buildings. It is expected that the work on the street will be completed within two weeks.

All Ready For Dollar Day.

The Danielson Business Men's association has been unusually active through its members this week in making arrangements for Dollar Day, which is expected to attract an unusually large number of out of town buyers to Danielson to share in the opportunity for special buying and to stir increased interest among the local trade. This is to be the first trial of Dollar Day in Danielson and the business men have seen to it that it will be worth while.

OBITUARY.

Leonard Bartlett.

Leonard Bartlett, 82, died Tuesday at his home in East Killingly. He was born in this town and had been a resident here all of his life. He was many years of which he was engaged as a shoemaker. He had been in poor health for years. He leaves his wife, one daughter, Mary, a sister, Mrs. J. N. Tucker, all of East Killingly and three brothers, Almon of East Killingly, R. S. Bartlett of Norwich, and Charles F. Bartlett of Montville.

Interested in Italian Loan.

Having had their fling at the $500,000 Anglo-French loan, local investors are now interested in the opportunity to place orders through the Windham County National bank and the Danielson Trust company for shares in the $25,000,000 loan to the Italian government. This investment is in the form of 5 per cent. one year convertible gold notes payable in United States gold coin and the notes may be exchanged at the end of the year for bonds to run ten years and bearing interest at the rate of 5 1/2 per cent.

Another Attendance Contest.

Next Sunday will be marked in the Baptist Sunday school by the opening of another attendance contest with the Sunday school of the Baptist church at Saremont, N. H., where a brother of Rev. W. D. Swaffield of the local church is pastor. Another similar contest that ran for several months and ended during the spring of the present year had the surprising result of ending in a tie. The contest created unusual interest in the Sunday school and left lasting benefits. Points in the contest are awarded for number in attendance, visitors, etc., and a record is kept from week to week.

Will Represent K. H. S. at Conference.

Principal Ernest Ross Warren and Paul N. Swaffield of the faculty will represent Killingly high school at the conference that is to be held in Putnam today relative to organizing an interscholastic league for basketball, Southbridge, Plainfield and Tourterotte Memorial High schools are expected to be present. It is expected that attention will also be given to the drawing up of rules and regulations for the government of the league and something may be done about formulating a schedule, but a meeting of the local managers may be necessary at some later date to care for this feature of starting the league.

It is hoped that it may be possible to form at the meeting a permanent interscholastic athletic association to have supervision over all sports in which the schools engage.

At the local school about 25 candidates have come out in response to Coach Swaffield's call for basketball players. Afternoon practice is being indulged in regularly, this consisting chiefly of passing, shooting, signal and formation drills. All intended to round the players into form. Of last year's very successful team there remains Reddy, captain, Gallup, who played in a number of games, and Buffington, who was a substitute last year. The team promises to be lighter than was last year's team, but very speedy.

On account of the teachers' convention in New London today, the schools in Killingly are closed.
